

CONTENTS.

	Page.
CHAPTER I.
Introductory—Charter—Changes in the Charter Lines—Proprietors' Meetings—Streams of Water, and something of the Topography of the Town.....	9
CHAPTER II.
The First Settlement and the First Settlers.....	23
CHAPTER III.
Burgoyne's Invasion in the Summer of 1777—The Settlers driven off—Interesting Incidents.....	34
CHAPTER IV.
The First Town Representative—Reorganization of the Town—Grand List of 1781—Settlement of Ithamar Hibbard—First Meeting House erected—Division of the Town into School Districts.....	39
CHAPTER V.
The Poultney Library—Other Libraries—The first Census—Mills erected prior to 1800.....	46
CHAPTER VI.
Population of the Town by Decades, 1791 to 1870—The villages in 1800—The Business at and about that time—Post Offices.....	53
CHAPTER VII.
The Poultney Turnpike—The Flood of 1811—Damages by the Flood—Incidents.....	62
CHAPTER VIII.
The War of 1812—Political Excitement—Its Effect among the People.....	70
CHAPTER IX.
Agriculture and the Industries—Social Habits.....	77
CHAPTER X.
The East and West Villages—Their Growth—The Poultney Gazette and Northern Spectator—The Poultney Band.....	80
CHAPTER XI.
Ecclesiastical—History of Congregational, Baptist, Methodist, Episcopal, Advent and Roman Catholic Churches.....	98
CHAPTER XII.
Masons—Odd Fellows—Temperance and Temperance Organizations.....	157
CHAPTER XIII.
The Troy Conference Academy—Ripley Female College—Poultney Normal Institute—St. John's School.....	162

	Page.
CHAPTER XIV.
The Bank of Poultney—Rutland and Washington Railroad—Telegraph....	176
CHAPTER XV.
The Slate Interest.....	181
CHAPTER XVI.
Poultney in the War of 1861.....	188
FAMILY AND BIOGRAPHICAL.....	197
APPENDIX.....	307